

THE RED & THE BLACK

WORKERS OF THE WORLD UNITE — AT THE BLACK DOG ON MAY DAY!

Join us on May 1st at 6:30 p.m. at the Black Dog Café for a spirited and informative celebration of the 120th anniversary of May Day as the official holiday of the International Labor Movement.

Stories, poems, songs, video, art work, presentations and more about the ongoing struggle for economic and social justice both at home and abroad, featuring: Spoken word by Anya Achtenberg, Ed Bok Lee, Kyle Chase, Diane Jarvi, and Rich Broderick. Music by The Fantastic Merlins and Diane Jarvi. Presentations by Dr. Stephan Peter, faculty member in political science at Anoka-Ramsey Community College and an expert in the European labor movement, and Members of the Minnesota chapter of the I.W.W. on the attempted suppression of the Wobblies in the early 20th century and the One Big Union's current progress. Continuous video feed of May Day celebrations taking place that day in Paris, Berlin and elsewhere.

The Red & The Black, 6:30 to 9:30 p.m., the Black Dog Café, Coffee and Wine Bar, 308 Prince St., corner of Fourth & Broadway, (across from the St. Paul Farmer's Market), Lowertown St. Paul, 651.228.9274